

Faculty, Staff & Class Notice

Attn. Faculty & Staff:

Re: Campus Event:

Time:

Location:

Sponsored by:

Subject: Nonviolent Sexuality: How Not to get run over by Your DRIVE!

A Campus Dialogue on Sex, Conflict, Alcohol & Intimacy

with

Presenter:

Bob Hall, M.A.C.R.

*“A fascinating, witty
sometimes disarming view of sex, conflict, and just coping with the world today.”*

*Assistant Program Director
University of Florida*

- Educator and Entrepreneur
- Owner and Founder of conflict education companies
 - Learning To Live With Conflict, Inc.
 - Campus Programs That Matter™
 - Propaganda Products™
- Former Board Member of the New York State Coalition Against Sexual Assault
- Presented on over 800 Campuses in 49 States & Canada since 1987
- Nominated 3 Times for the National Association for Campus Activities Lecturer of the Year

Life is built on relationships and knowing how to interact and communicate with others really matters! And when it comes to college life, one of the most common - least talked about sources of conflict has to do with how we handle “The Drive” for closeness and intimacy. Nonviolent Sexuality deals with some sensitive issues in an entertaining and interactive manner that students find engaging and fun. The content is solid and research based, the language used is inclusive of all audience members, and the strategic use of humor, throughout the program, is tastefully done. Abstinence is addressed as a valid choice in relationships but not presented as a substitute for dealing with the realities of human sexuality and conflict. We hope you’ll join us for an engaging and interesting discussion of sex, conflict, alcohol and intimacy.

